

LOWDEN APPEALS FOR STRAIGHT TICKET IN TUESDAY'S ELECTION

WANTS REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE AT SPRINGFIELD TO AID HIM.

HAS FIVE BIG AIMS IN MIND

Lowden As Governor Will Need Republican Legislature—Asks for "Straight Ticket."

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Frank O. Lowden, republican candidate for governor, made a plea for the election of his republican colleagues on the state ticket and a legislature with a workable republican majority, in a speech tonight at Forum hall, 43rd street and Calumet avenue. Mr. Lowden emphasized five cardinal points in his constructive program and declared that as governor, alone and unaided, he couldn't hope to achieve those reforms in full. The five "big things" are:

- A constitutional convention that government may be simplified and known errors in legislation corrected.
- Creation of a finance department at Springfield and the reduction of the existing 120 boards and bureaus to a small number of centralized bodies of wide authority.
- Establishment of a real budget system by which appropriations will be accurately gauged and the state's expenditures lowered, resulting in a lower tax rate.

Home rule of public utilities for Chicago.

Election of fewer public officers, for fewer elections, and a shorter ballot.

"As against the extravagance and waste of the last three years and a half under Governor Dunne, I am anxious to effect reforms that will mean a businesslike and economical administration of state affairs," Col. Lowden said. "I am for all of these changes because I think they will mean lower taxes and better government. However, I cannot achieve all of them alone. I hope you not only will elect me governor but I want you to strengthen my hands by choosing republicans in all the other state offices. A good sized, workable republican majority in both branches of the legislature is essential. I ask all republicans in Illinois to do the quick, patriotic thing on election day—take your pencil and mark a single cross in the circle at the top of the republican ticket. Vote it straight."

On the national questions of tariff and high cost of living, Col. Lowden emphasized the following points:

That in 1913 after the low tariff rates of the Underwood law had been in effect, American factories were closing and American workmen were being laid off.

Imports from Europe were at high tide and foreign factories were expanding and booming.

Then war fell upon Europe and in a night came the change from depression in the United States to a false and blood-stained prosperity.

This spotted prosperity cannot last and will, after the war closes, see more efficiency in European factories, a flux of European made goods to America, the closing of American factories and hard times unless a republican president and congress meanwhile are elected and raise the tariff rates to a protective standard.

In the last three years the cost of eatables, clothes, shoes and of everything needed in the American home have been advanced in price from 50 to 75 per cent.

SHOE COMPANY REDUCES HOURS

This will affect approximately 6,000 employees working in various plants of the company.

German Submarine Docked; Completed Second Big Voyage

Deutschland Arrived At New London, Conn.—Koenig In Command

(Associated Press)
New London, Conn., Nov. 1.—Germany's commercial submarine, the Deutschland, arrived here today completing her second voyage through the British and French warships on both sides of the Atlantic. She is in charge of Capt. Koenig, who commanded her on her first trip.

The Deutschland left Bremen Oct. 10. The captain and crew of 25 men are well and in high spirits over the success of their second voyage. Capt. Koenig said that for rough weather the trip was uneventful.

Washington, Nov. 1.—The Deutschland, Germany's submarine merchantman, is believed, in quarters here which should know, to be now on her second voyage to the United States. Knowledge of the date the vessel is supposed to have started from Germany is disclaimed.

News dispatches from Switzerland reporting that the Deutschland, as well as the Bremen, had been lost and that the former started for the United States during September were discredited. It was emphatically declared that the Deutschland was in a German port all last month.

My Conception Of The Presidency

By CHARLES EVANS HUGHES

On the eve of election day the American people are entitled to a summary of the things I have stood for in this campaign, as they are the things upon which I shall stand for as President.

No man can tell in advance what unexpected demands the next four years may present but one whose conception of the president's duty rests upon fundamental principles can describe with entire certainty how the problems of administration would be approached and in what spirit they would be solved.

A man charged with the duty of reaching the desired goal knows that the road to it is found in following that path which sound judgment and clear vision open up step by step. I serve the friendship of every other citizen of the nation.

I propose first of all to start right. The president is primarily an executive. It is his supreme duty to attend to the business of the nation, to safeguard its interests, to anticipate its needs, to enforce its laws.

The first act of a president who takes this view of his duties is to call about him the ablest cabinet the country can furnish, men who can deal with the tremendous international and domestic problems which will confront us in the next four years.

My conception of the presidency differs absolutely from that of Mr. Wilson. I look upon the president as the administrative head of the government. He looks upon the president as primarily the political leader and lawmaker of the nation.

In the two departments of government most closely touching our foreign relations—the department of state and the department of the navy—he chose men whom he knew to be wholly unequal to their duties. Administrative obligation was subordinated to political exigency. I can assure the country that any administration under my direction will stand upon sound administrative ground with the ablest cabinet the country can supply.

Across the road we are to travel and England and Germany are seeking to think out the problem today. Every one of these nations is preparing to defend its own market by a protective tariff. The end of the war will rise out of the war, the millions in the trenches today will be our industrial competitors tomorrow. If we are to save our laboring men from a catastrophe we must plan a tariff protection along sound, just and economic lines. To this endeavor I pledge myself and the men who are to be my colleagues.

In this matter again I differ absolutely from the policy of the present administration. Democratic platforms have declared that the government has no right to levy tariff duties except for income. This is the fundamental faith of the democratic party. I pledge myself and those who stand with me to deal with the needs of laboring men the country over, whatever their trade or organization, upon the principle of giving the largest protection possible to every American working man and the largest participation possible in the prosperity of our industries with special favors to none.

Finally it is to be remembered that every European government is putting itself behind its industries; organizing them, encouraging them and subsidizing economies. When the commerce of Europe is thrown into commercial

HALLOWE'EN DAMAGE IN DIXON IS SMALL

Hallowe'en passed with less than the usual amount of depredations in Dixon, the police department reporting this morning that but few calls were made upon them. Of course the porch and lawn furniture was found hanging to trees and telephone poles this morning and carpenters will be kept busy for several days replacing tipped over or moved from foundations, but as far as could be learned there were no costly damages. Probably the most individual damage was a large plate glass window at the Spiller home when a crossing approach was thrown through it. It is likely the revellers merely intended to throw it onto the porch and heaven too lustily. A plate glass in the front door at the Judge Crabtree home was broken when a potato was thrown against it.

William E. Mason, candidate for congressman-at-large on the Republican ticket, was United States Senator from March 4, 1897, to March 4, 1903, and as such introduced the first pure food legislation that body had considered. He was chairman of the post office committee and made the first report in the senate in favor of postal savings banks. He worked for rural free delivery and election of U. S. senators by the people. Mr. Mason also was a member of the house of representatives in Washington for a number of years and has been in both branches of the Illinois legislature. He has been a forceful exponent of Republican principles for thirty years and is accounted one of the most effective campaign speakers in the United States.

Castle's Parents Will Give No Help; Brother In Party

Young Confessed Auto Thief Told Parents' Whole Story Of Exploit

The parents of Robert "Castle," one of the young men who confessed stealing Michael Conroy's auto, drove to Dixon from Bloomington in their auto last night and spent some time today with their son in the county jail. To them "Castle" repeated his story and it was through them that the officers learned that the third fellow in the party, who escaped at Pensacola, was not in Dixon, but joined Castle and Ferguson at Bloomington. After the interview the young man's father told the prisoner he could do nothing for him and he would have to take his medicine. None of Ferguson's relatives have responded to his call for help.

Brundage Proclaimed Real Harmony Candidate By Unsuccessful Rivals

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Edward J. Brundage today was proclaimed the real harmony candidate for attorney general. Brundage secured the nomination at the hands of the voters of the republican party. I have been doing all I possibly can for the entire state ticket in Will county since the results of the primaries became known and will continue to do so. Mr. Brundage's record discloses him as an executive of unquestioned ability and a lawyer of high standing. He will be a credit to the republican party in the office of attorney general. No one will make a mistake in voting for him."

Mr. Wilson said in part:

"While I believe that any of the active candidates would have made an acceptable attorney general, the republican party is fortunate in having selected as its candidate, in Mr. Brundage a man of high character training and his distinguished incumbency of the office of corporation counsel of the city of Chicago, which approaches in dignity and importance the attorney generalship itself."

FORMER DIXON MAN CHARGED WITH BEING WED TO TWO WOMEN

W. H. STANLEY'S MARITAL AFFAIRS MAY RESULT IN HIS PROSECUTION.

WIVES MET IN DIXON TUESDAY

Mrs. Mabel Stanley Came From Decatur to See Mrs. Mina Stanley.

William H. Stanley or Henry Clay Stanley (the authorities are uncertain which name is correct), a former Dixon man and the husband of a Dixon woman, faces criminal proceedings for bigamy as the result of a meeting of his two alleged wives in this city Tuesday.

The first wife is Mrs. Wilmina Stanley, who resides with her mother, Mrs. Jane E. Howell 816 Second St.; the second wife was Miss Mabel Wheeler of Decatur. It was at Mrs. Wilmina Stanley's home in Dixon the two women met for the first time on Tuesday and learned of the perfidy of the man who had sworn to love, honor and cherish each of them. And as a result of their meeting Mrs. Mabel Stanley returned to Decatur Tuesday evening determined to turn the matter over to the state attorney of Marion county.

Was Student In Dixon.

Stanley, it is learned, came here 14 years ago and entered Dixon college. He was good looking, well educated and bright and had intended preparing himself for an instructor. In February, 1906, he married Miss Wilmina Howell and the happy couple hoped he would be able to obtain a position on the faculty of the Dixon college.

Went to Wenona.

Failing in this they moved to Wenona, Minn., where for two years Stanley taught school. From there they went to Greeley, Colo., where the young husband obtained a position in a college. About a month after they settled in Greeley the educational institution failed, Stanley purchased and conducted it for some time, later disposing of it and moving to Decatur, where he obtained a position in James Milliken university.

Wife Returns to Dixon.

For a year the family, consisting of husband, wife and two small children, resided in Decatur, then it was thought best for the children's sake that they live in Dixon. Accordingly Mrs. Stanley returned to this city, the husband always returning here for the summer. One summer he failed to come and his wife could obtain no trace of him.

Met Miss Wheeler.

While in Decatur, it is charged, Stanley met Miss Wheeler and May 14, 1915, they were married at St. Charles, Mo. They lived together until March 19, this year, when Stanley disappeared.

Wife No. 2 started search and finally located him at Elm Springs, Mo.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill. — "While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital." — Mrs. E. Sheldon, 5657 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

Old struggle begins anew, the industries of every European country will go into the world markets backed by the effective co-operation and intelligent oversight of their government.

Our national policy requires that government maintain a strict supervision of business organization. This can be done effectively and yet leave the government free to encourage legitimate and wholesome business enterprise. I stand for such supervision and control of business, but I demand also that business great and small (and especially the small business) be treated fairly and justly. Only under such conditions can business pay living wages or compete with foreign manufacturers.

In this respect again the present administration holds a policy entirely opposite. It has viewed business enterprise with suspicion and has made the government a brake to stop the wheels of legitimate industrial progress. It has treated the business men of this country as though they were suspicious characters. It has assumed that capital and labor are natural enemies. In four years it has put this country further on the road to class war than has been accomplished in a generation before. The men who stand with me believe in the honesty of the American working man, they believe no less in the honesty of the American business man, and they believe that the common good is to be found not in class war but in mutual justice and fair dealing, not as between capital and labor in the abstract, but as between men and men.

You know the road we have traveled this last four years. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Daniels are its monuments of efficiency. Our murdered and forsaken citizens in Mexico reveal a conception of American citizenship plain enough to see but a new one for American patriotism to adopt; the monument of class bitterness raised by this administration throws a sinister shadow across our political horizon; the unjust accusation against business men has left a bitter taste in our national life. If you prefer this path, it is plainly marked. And the end of it is class war.

You ask what road I propose to travel? These are the milestones that mark it—an executive responsible to the whole nation, a cabinet chosen from the ablest Americans, a foreign policy that stands courteously but firmly for American rights, a flag that protects the American in his lawful rights wherever his legitimate business may take him, a preparation for trade competition which shall protect all groups of American working men, a government oversight of business which I propose to be guided.

ness which will fearlessly eliminate abuses but will act on the assumption that the average business man is honest, and finally a domestic policy that looks to industrial peace, and to sound and permanent prosperity based upon the development of American trade and the building up of American industries. We are Americans in one boat. You cannot strike a blow at one group without injury to all. Common sense may take him, a preparation for justice and fair play will settle our trade competition which shall protect all groups of American working men, a government oversight of business which I propose to be guided.

STUDENTS PARADE GREAT SUCCESS

Both Schools Unite to Give Gorgeous Pageant

The students parade prior to the big game Friday was very unique. The procession was led by the C. C. band and each class followed in order: the Seniors of both schools; then the Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. "Sterling's goat, funeral procession, the life and drum corps, and the all Irish, German band were features of the parade. The suffragettes, jockeys, rubes, hunters, armored auto car and many others were prominent in the afternoon event. The students collected on South Ottawa Ave. between Second street and the river. At 2:30 o'clock the band left this point, leading the classes. They marched west by First street to Peoria Ave. and south on Peoria to Fourth street, and east one block. In this way the visiting teachers who were still at the school could see the remarkable demonstration of school spirit in Dixon. The parade went through the business district again and the sidewalks on either side were crowded with dazed spectators. At this time the procession marched on First street to College avenue and then to the field at Athletic Park. After a demonstration on the field the rooters took the side lines. The parade was a great success for over two thousand witnessed the game.

Junior Class Stunt the Best

On Monday afternoon Mr. Hagen announced to the North Dixon High school students that he would prepare a surprise for the class who had the best stunt in the parade Friday. All the classes were well represented in the parade and it was rather difficult to make a decision but the committee decided that the Junior class stunt of Sterling's funeral procession was the best and the N. D. H. S. faculty had second best. The surprise has not yet been disclosed.

Should the privileges of the upper classmen be taken away just because the Freshmen do not know how to behave.

At noon, up to this time, we have always enjoyed the privilege of talking until 1 o'clock. This year it seems that the Freshmen do not know how to behave, and because of them, not only the Freshmen, but also the upper class people have to suffer for it. Is this fair? No, indeed. The Freshmen should be made to suffer for their own wrong doing. Look out Freshies!

The girls of the N. D. H. S. are hoping that a gymnasium will soon be installed so that physical training may be afforded them. The girls need physical training as well as the boys in order to attain good mental training. Keep up hope, girls, and do something to help this movement along, and you will soon be repaid for it.

The new project of buying a moving picture machine is a very good one. Anything that helps the pupil in gaining more knowledge of modern education is certainly an advantage. It is said by some noted educators that things seen are longer

TEACHER'S ASSN. MET IN DIXON

The Northern Illinois Teachers Association which met in Dixon, October 26 and 27 was well attended by teachers from all over Northwestern Illinois. The sessions of the institute were held in the Methodist church, except for the sectional meetings which took place at the South side school building. The principal speakers of the institute included: Dr. Nathan Schaeffer, superintendent of Public Instruction in Pennsylvania, who spoke on "Work and Play in Education," and Dr. Adrian Hoben of the University of Chicago, whose subjects were: "Why Boys and Girls Go Wrong" and "The Biology of Boy Nature."

N. D. H. Well Represented

The North Dixon school was well represented. Miss Fissel, English instructor, read a paper on "Nature, Purpose and Scope" of literary work in the seventh and eighth grades, before the grammar section of the Association.

The North Dixon School orchestra and the Union High School Glee club furnished delightful music was under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Phelps.

EDISON'S ONLY RIVAL

Greig's Perfected Ivory Victrola Needle

Any substance that will transmit vibrations will do for a phonograph needle. But a needle that produces a soft tone and is not easily broken is a difficult thing to find.

The Greig Perfected Needle is made of pure ivory. One or two rubs on a piece of sand paper renews the point. They are a distinct innovation in the needle industry, producing a tone especially fitted for home use. Sold by Wm. Greig 412 E. Chamberlain street, Dixon, Ill. Price 5 cents; 6 for 25 cents.

remembered than those heard such as lectures, or those read, such as facts from the text books. This sounds reasonable. Hence the machine being placed in North Dixon schools would be of educational value. The willing spirit of the parents of North Dixon is plainly shown in that they want the highest educational advantages for their children. This spirit is shown in a number of ways, such as giving money to pay for the much desired machine. Therefore, we see that the moving picture machines about to be placed in the North Dixon schools is of high educational value.

DIXON AND STERLING PLAY TIE GAME

A very hard battle between the teams of Dixon and Sterling was fought at Athletic Park, Friday. The score was nothing to nothing, in favor of Dixon as a small boy would say.

Dixon had the ball in Sterling's territory 54 out of the 60 minutes. Twice the whistle blew and stopped the local boys from making a touch down. The Sterling line saved them selves in the nick of time when Brooks carried the ball across the line, but was forced back and when the tangled mess of humanity was righted, the ball was found to be six inches from the goal line.

The day was an ideal one and a great number attended the game.

MISCELLANEOUS

On account of unpreparedness in her Caesar lesson Arlene Schrock in translating "Pueri et mulieres" said, "The children and the mules." Since mules means women it is some slam on them.

Bad weather Sunday prevented the teachers weekly canoe ride.

The High School has been worrying about the Freshmen dance. No need for more worry because news is received that the dance will be given a week from Friday.

Alice Lehman spent the week-end in Mt. Morris visiting her brother Samuel, who is attending college there.

The Reception committee while passing the time (and telephone poles) till the next train met a ten penny nail that adhered to a back tire and necessitated the removal and putting on of a worse tire. Their means of conveyance was left at the garage and they were late at meeting the train.

Helen Zuhl added to the knowledge of the Geometry class when she informed them that a straight line is the shortest point between two paths.

In History IV Miss Tipton announced that personally she did not care for dates.

In Latin, Ione Scott, on being asked to decline the Latin word for water began, watera, watera, etc.

Lately Mr. William Greig became acquainted with his twin, a distant cousin. He visited her at her home last evening. The young lady is a light blonde.

After Nov. 1, 1916, this paper will not be published on account of the raise in the raw material.

George Beier offered the Seniors some sinkers at their sandwich sale. Bless George's heart.

We investigate all adds to see if the firm is reliable.

MOVING PICTURES FOR NORTH DIXON

OLD-TIME COLD CURE DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoonful at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil Stop "dozing" Rheumatism. It's pain only, not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roper, Mrs. Roper's sister, Mrs. Crevison, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Lee Dysart went to Chicago this morning.

Get the Habit of Drinking Hot Water Before Breakfast

Says we can't look or feel right with the system full of poisons.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles if you could believe these hot water enthusiasts. There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and the thirty feet of intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body which if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result is poisons and toxins which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments. People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can't get feeling right are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation. Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so limestone phosphate and hot water act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is vastly more important to bathe on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

For Winter Colds

You need a real tonic. Strength is required to overcome the trouble. Let that tonic be one that is specially valuable in catarrhal conditions, and you can conquer the cold. A cold is not a cold; it may become chronic. Chronic catarrh frequently becomes systemic, involving the stomach and the intestinal tract as well as the nose or throat. It means stagnation.

With Miss Rosecrans

Nothing daunted by being met by three masked ghosts at the door, the members of Mrs. Kleppinger's Sunday School class of the Methodist church marched resolutely into the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rosecrans, Monday evening, feeling quite sure that with Miss Helen Rosecrans as their hostess, all would be well. Fortune telling and other games suited to the Halloween season occupied the early part of the evening, the setting for all the merriment, rooms attractively decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins, and other Halloween paraphernalia. This party embraced not only the class members, but a number of gentlemen as well, and about thirty-six in all were present. Pumpkin pie, gingerbread, the tempting refreshments served, sandwiches and lemonade composed

Cousins Entertain Together

Loreta Bolt and Douglas Rogers, cousins, had a Halloween party together Monday evening, the company of young friends first gathering at the home of Douglas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rogers, and later finishing the evening with Loreta at her home on Everett street. Halloween games were played at the home of the former and continued at the home of the latter, where the refreshments of the evening were served. The little guests included Jean Shear, Alice Coppins, Henrietta Vail, Kathryn Durkes, Mildred Page, Dorothy Palmer, Frances Ackert, Doris Boyer, Clinton Ives, Hugh Senneff, Lonnie Boyer, John Roe, Russell Smith, Robert Rhodes, Harold Hardesty, and Julius Knick.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Countryman entertained at a card party last evening.

Phidian Art Club

The Phidian Art Club held a most interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Bacharach with Miss Rosenthal as hostess.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Forsythe, and the reading of the minutes and roll call followed.

Miss Helen Bacharach gave the members a musical treat, singing in a very charming manner the aria from "Mignon" and "Aus Meine Grossen Schmerzen" by Franz, and responding very gracefully to applause with "Marinettes" as an encore. The first paper of the afternoon, "The Twin Cities and Their Galleries," was given by Mrs. McWethy.

St. Paul and Minneapolis, she said, cover fifty square miles each. St. Paul is built upon seven hills and twenty bridges span the Mississippi at Minneapolis. There are thirteen lakes and 5,204 acres of parks in Minneapolis. Minnehaha Park is a great natural woods with beautiful picnic grounds and the Longfellow gardens full of all kinds of annuals and rare birds. The most interesting feature of the park aside from the falls itself is the bronze statue, representing, in life size figures, Hiawatha, carrying Nakomis across the stream. The figures of the Indians are placed on a small basket island in the stream just above the falls and are seen through a natural thicket and amid surroundings that lend charming realism to the character of Longfellow's poem. Como Park in St. Paul is enjoyed by thousands. It covers 425 acres, 102 of which are water.

St. Paul has the magnificent capital building, second in architecture only to our capitol at Washington, the Congressional Library and the Boston Library.

There are three art galleries in the twin cities.—The Minneapolis Institute of Art, The Institute of Art at St. Paul, and the Walker gallery, the latter owned by F. B. Walker of Minneapolis. The Walker gallery has a magnificent collection of Raphael, Rembrandt, and Van Dyke's works, and has the distinction of possessing the largest Turner collection in the United States.

Following this most interesting paper by Mrs. McWethy, Miss Hitchcock told of some delightful visits at the home of the Walkers who are friends of hers.

The second paper, "The Explorers and Historians of the Northwest," was given by Mrs. C. P. Reid. The most important explorers of the Northwest were Lewis and Clark, Zebulon Pike, Long, and John C. Fremont. Lewis and Clark started their exploration in 1805 and went as far as the Pacific. Zebulon Pike, at the age of twenty-six, started an exploration, having as its main object the discovering of the source of the Red river. Pike was the discoverer of the famous mountain peak in Colorado which bears his name. Long of New Hampshire was a military man who started from Pittsburgh and went west on the Arkansas river to the Royal Gorge. He leaves two books which were the most detailed accounts written by any of the explorers. John C. Fremont was the most important of the explorers and was called the pathfinder. At the age of twenty he was the greatest mathematician in the world. He was sent into the western territory by Governor Benton and discovered the highest peak in the Wind River mountains, which now bears his name. He fought in the Mexican war and later became governor of California. He wrote four extensive histories.

A very enjoyable social hour followed the papers and delicious refreshments, in keeping with Halloween traditions, were served. Halloween decorations were also used. Mrs. A. S. Hyde of Chicago was an out-of-town guest.

U. and I. Club

The U. and I. Club were very pleasantly entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Embury of E. Second street. Witches, ghosts, and cats, held high carnival amid the very attractive decorations of the house, and appetizing refreshments in keeping with the season were served. Twenty members and friends of the club were present.

Hear Points on Law

That Dixon women are seeking knowledge to make of them intelligent voters was further proved Monday afternoon at the meeting of Chapter A. C. Ill., P. E. O., when Atty. Mark Keller addressed the chapter on "Women in Law." His talk was most instructive and explained many points that had been obscure. Mrs. Leland had charge of the afternoon's parliamentary drill, and the program closed with a double piano number by Miss Grace Judd, which was greatly enjoyed. Cleverly planned and most tempting were the Halloween refreshments served, with sunflower pins with pumpkin faces as favors for the guests.

GIRLS! GIRLS TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops falling out and gets thick, wavy, strong and Beautiful

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft, hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

Have you a mortgage note coming due? If the tax on mortgages is collected in the future you should count on about 1 per cent increase in the interest rate which you will have to ask on your mortgage. If the Tax Amendment is adopted, the legislature probably will provide for taxing mortgages at a low rate and there will be no increase of your interest rate. Also the tax would be paid at time of recording and revenue would flow in to the relief of property now overtaxed.

INDIANS FORESEE MILD WINTER

Point to Many Signs Which Indicate Softened Winter.

Duluth, Oct. 30.—Northern Indians schooled in woodcraft, thru signs of stream and forest, see a kindly, softened winter. They will not go to any great shakes to have their squaws build warm wigwams, they say.

The Indians base their belief on the light corn crop, scarcity and laziness of squirrels at this time, when they should be filling their tree caches.

In addition the muskrats are dilatory about building habitations, the fur-bearing animals have thin coats now, when they should be fitting out in their thickest overcoats, and bark on the trees is loose.

BROUGHT GIRL HOME

Deputy Schoenholz arrived today from Chicago, bringing Bessie Clark, the 14-year old girl who ran away from her home in Amboy about ten days ago because her mother scolded her. Chicago officers located her.

HEAD AND NOSTRILS STUFFED FROM COLD

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends a cold or gripe in a few hours

Your cold will break and all gripe misery end after taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness, and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and stuffing! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as Pape's Cold Compound. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

The Tax Amendment to be voted on November 7 offers the only means for an intelligent and impartial recasting of the Illinois taxation system.

In eastern states—as statistics show—the interstate rate on money is much less than it is in Illinois. At the same time the tax rate on mortgages and other intangible values is less than provided for by the laws of this state. There is a connection between these two facts which voters, November 7, when the Tax Amendment is laid before them to be voted on, cannot afford to disregard. Our law requires the taxation of all mortgages at a rate three or four times as great as that of eastern states.

Have you a savings deposit? If you have, it is liable to taxation under the laws as they now exist. If the law is enforced in future you will have to pay every year, in taxes, about one-half the amount which the bank pays to you in interest. In states where this matter of fixing savings bank deposits has been intelligently dealt with a very low rate has been placed upon savings deposits which has helped banks and depositors and made for public honesty. Vote for the Tax Amendment.

WILSON BLIND TO INDUSTRIAL DEFENSE

President Wilson's refusal to look ahead and prepare the country industrially is exactly like his refusal at one time to look ahead and prepare for national defense.

Eight months after the European war had begun, and when the American people were instinctively demanding better defenses on land and sea, Mr. Wilson superciliously described the movement as "nervous and excited." "We are well prepared," he said, as if he were addressing little children. "Don't be nervous; don't make the mistake of thinking I have not already thought of these things; we are strong; we have a navy and army. You are merely mistaken, that is all."

Later Mr. Wilson took heed of the strong demand, saw that the people would sweep him aside if he did not obey their will, and then he was the chief champion of national defense. He said the country should have the biggest navy in the world—the other extreme that no sane American demands. He declared that no man could tell at what moment war would come. His speeches were as full of alarm as they had been previously smug and self-satisfied. By the aid of republicans, who constantly opposed the tardy attitude of many democrats in congress, a program of national defense was enacted which met the demands of the people.

Now Mr. Wilson again plays the schoolmaster and tells the people they are nervous and excited when they demand industrial defense. He tells them they are "seeing things" when they predict severe competition from Europe by cheap labor after the war. He refers to the popgun "dumping clause" of the new revenue law and asserts that it is all-sufficient protection to American labor.

President Wilson fails to meet the situation now, as he failed to meet it in regard to national defense until he dared not refuse the mandate of the people. He is not a leader, but a reluctant follower of public opinion. He does not believe the public is right, and when compelled to abandon his own attitude he does it for the sake of votes, and not because he believes the public is right.

Th dumping clause is an absurdity as a means of insuring defense. It does not protect American industry or American labor against the cheap labor products of Europe. It merely prevents the sale here of foreign goods at prices cheaper than they bring at home. There are thousands of articles of importance which can be manufactured cheaply and sold cheaply abroad, and if no protective tariff bars them out they will enter the United States in competition with the goods made by well paid American labor. They can be sold here at the price they bring at home, or even higher, and still be ruinous to American industry.

The dumping clause applies only to goods that foreigners may try to sell to Americans at a price lower than that paid in the foreigner's own country. But the foreigner need not fix his price so low. Under the democratic tariff he can raise his prices, and still undersell Americans in America. The tariff law admits two-thirds of all imports free of duty. The foreigner has every advantage over an American in the American market. He has cheap labor, cheap raw material, cheap transportation, and no duty to pay. The American manufacturer in many industries has costly labor, costly raw material, long-distance railroad transportation, and high taxes to pay. The item of labor, however, is the principal factor of cost. Labor receives from 75 to 90 per cent of the outlay of manufacture in America. In foreign countries labor receives much less.

President Wilson knows these facts, or can know them if he will not close his mind to the truth.

But President Wilson refuses to recognize these facts. He is ashamed, apparently, to abandon the free-trade theories which he ascribed as a college student and professor. His theory of business and commerce is shattered by the workaday truth, but he clings to theory, nevertheless. When Mr. Hughes voices the demand of the people for industrial protection and defense, Mr. Wilson dodges the issue and suggests that the people are "nervous and excited;" that they don't realize what they are talking about, that there is a popgun dumping law already in existence, and that the ignorance of the people concerning the law is evidence that they are ignorant of the whole subject.

There need be no expectation of national industrial defense or protection against foreign cheap labor competition so long as Mr. Wilson is president.

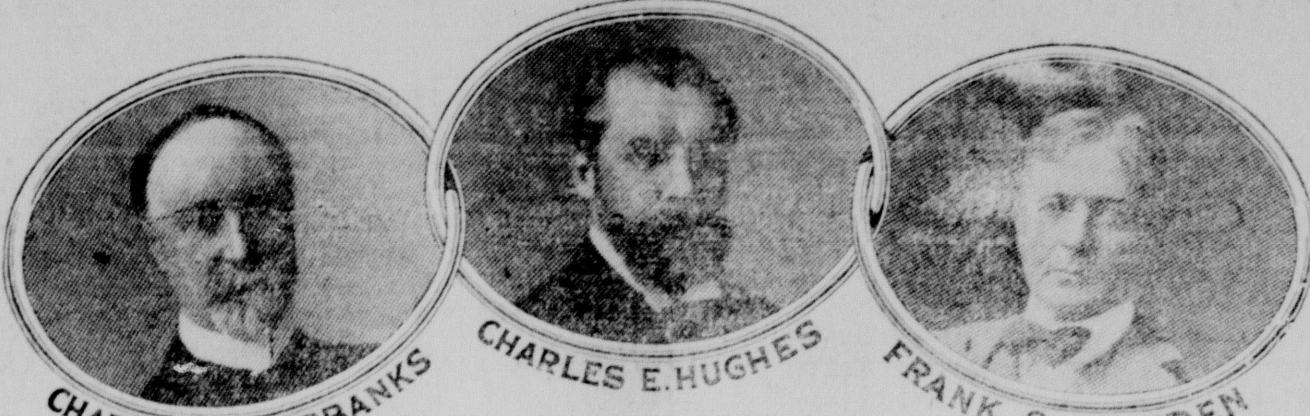

THE NEED OF A SCIENTIFIC TARIFF

"We cannot have our workmen enjoy the American standard of wages and the American standard of living unless we wisely, not recklessly, unless we scientifically apply this governmental power in every practicable way to make general prosperity possible in every line of honest activity."—Hughes, at Baltimore, Oct. 10.

It will be observed that Mr. Hughes shows at his best when some one attempts to embarrass him with a question. And he has been strong in that he has never evaded the point. His answers have invariably been honest statements and never those cheap witticisms so often employed by speakers to turn the laugh on those who annoy them.

It is stated officially that the forthcoming report of Secretary of War Baker will denounce the militia system and recommend a compulsory military service. Secretary Baker entered the cabinet a cooing peace dove and he's screaming like an eagle already. Happily for the peace of the world his tenure of office is hastening to a close.

When Mr. Hughes assumes office on the 4th of March the country will breathe a sigh of relief to think that has a president who means what he says.

"A THREEFOLD CORD CANNOT QUICKLY BE TORN ASUNDER"

WICKED BUSINESS MISSIONARIES.

"During the past three years and a half one would suppose that any American who went abroad to advance American industry and commerce was a bad sort of fellow, presumably, who had forfeited his rights. Protect him? Why, didn't he go abroad to make money? What a shameless proceeding! Let him stew in his own juice, or let him come home."—Hughes, at Baltimore, Oct. 10.

THE LOGICAL CONCLUSION.

They (the democrats) told us four years ago that we were guilty of waste and extravagance, but now they hold the record for waste and extravagance * * * more than $250,000,000 in excess of the record of the republican session of 1910."—Hughes, at Baltimore, Oct. 10.

Put Obstructions on Track to See Cars Crush Them.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. Nov. 1. Bloodhounds employed by officials of the Illinois Traction System to trace persons who, it was thought, attempted to wreck two trains of the company between Peoria and Springfield, by placing obstructions on the rails, picked out three boys of the Lincoln State School and Colony for Feeble-Minded in Lincoln, Ill.

The boys confessed they placed spikes and stones on the rails to see the cars crushed them. They were put on probation.

El Paso Banker Collects for Funds

Advanced Champion. El Paso, Tex., Nov. 1.—Jess Willard, heavyweight champion of the world, lost his first bout since he gained the title, here when he went up against the strong arm of the law. Two automobiles and a goat, which are said to be the property of Willard, are now attached and held by John Wyatt, vice president of the First National bank, for $1,800 advanced while Jess was training for his Havana fight with Jack Johnson. Jess didn't know that was as far as the law could go with him, so he left the circus flat—and that $1,000 a day salary. The circus people announced that Big Jess had a cold.

VENIZELLOS REFUSED ALLIED RECOGNITION

British People Indignant over Treatment of Friend.

London, Nov. 1.—The Morning Post publishes reports from Paris and Athens that the entente allies definitely have decided not to recognize the Venizelos movement, and demands that the British parliament insist that this action be reconsidered.

The Post says: "If the allies refuse to recognize the Venizelos government, they thereby admit that the soldiers and officers who adhere to that government are rebels and that officials and magistrates who support Venizelos are traitors; that Venizelos himself and his friends have no status; that they are liable to be cashiered, imprisoned, dismissed or shot by the Athens government, and that is apparently just what is being done—Venizelos supporters in the army, magistracy and other public offices are being arrested, cashiered, punished at wholesale without even the formalities required by law.

"The allies, indeed, are placing in the hands of King Constantine the indisputable title to punish traitors who are the allies' best friends. Parliament, if it is not altogether lost to the honor of the country, should insist that the Venizelist party shall not be betrayed into the hands of their enemies."

Much indignation is expressed in London over the allies permitting pro-Venizelists being displaced at Athens.

REPUDIATES HIS CONFESSION

George Arndt Now Denies He Pushed Fiancee from Pier.

Shafter, Tex., Nov. 1.—After voluntarily confessing that he pushed his fiancee, Miss Frances Bloom, a Chicago telephone operator, into a Chicago park lake on July 4, 1914, drowning her, George Arndt, a private in Company H, Fourth Texas infantry, a military prisoner here, has repudiated his confession and declared his innocence. He also denies all knowledge of making the confession.

CURRENT COMMENTS

Rockford Register-Gazette: Gov. Dunne's advertisements declare that "more humanitarian legislation has been enacted under Dunne than under his predecessors since the civil war." And yet in his speeches Gov. Dunne is saying that the legislature has been Republican since he has been governor and he is therefore not responsible for its acts. Yet Gov. Dunne presented a budget to the last general assembly asking for appropriations in excess of $45,000,000. Gov. Dunne wants credit for the good things done by the legislature, but does not want to stand for the extravagant appropriations which he forced the legislature to pass.

Arkansas Gazette: It is really amazing that so little good Negro dialect has been written. Many people who attempt to write it do not understand that it differs in various southern states. The Negro dialect of Virginia is unlike the Negro dialect of Mississippi and the Negro dialect of the Mississippi differs from the Negro dialect of Georgia. A phrase frequently misused by those unfamiliar with Negro dialect is "you all." Indeed this phrase, which is used by well-educated people in the South, is given a place nowadays in nearly every southern anecdote told or written on the other side of the Mason and Dixon line. The most illiterate Negro in the South never used "you all" in referring to one person, but northern writers and story tellers almost invariably use it that way. Another thing that writers of Negro dialect should take into consideration is that the dialect of the Negro of today differs somewhat from the dialect of the Negro of before the war, because nearly every Negro of today who is old enough has attended school, and of course the teaching they have received has had its effect on their everyday language.

BALLOTS UNMARKED PERIL TAX RELIEF

Amendment Needs Majority of
of all Men's Votes Cast
Mark Your Ballot
"Yes."

Under the head of "Amendments" the constitution of the State of Illinois says, "If a majority of the electors voting at said election shall vote for the proposed amendments, they shall become a part of this constitution." This provision was put into the constitution to prevent the possibility of an amendment slipping through with only a minority in its favor. The constitution with its amendments is presumed to be the expression of the will of the people of the state. And the theory of our government is that the majority rules. It would not be ruler-ship by the majority if a constitution could be amended by a minority of those voting at an election. This provision is for the safety of the people. It is designed to compel those who desire a change in the constitution to express themselves affirmatively. It is predicated upon the idea that those who want a change will vote for it. It assumes that those who are not for a change will vote against it. Every voter who goes to the polls November 7, should mark his ballot consistently with his belief as to what ought to be done in regard to the matters involved in the proposed constitutional amendment. He should remember, however, that failure to mark his ballot counts against the amendment and makes him responsible for a negative vote.

"NICK" YOUNG PASSES AWAY

Former Head of National Baseball League Was Also Once a Player.
Washington, Nov. 1.—Nicholas E. Young, an old time baseball player and formerly president of the National league, died at his home here. He had been employed in the treasury department for some time. He once played on a Chicago team.

Mr. Young was born in Amsterdam, N. Y., and was seventy-six years old. He played professional baseball with the old Nationals of Washington in the 60's, later with the Chicago club of the Union league and was at one time manager of the Lord Baltimore club of Baltimore. He became president and secretary of the National league in 1881 and held that position until 1903, when he retired and was succeeded by Harry Pulliam.

DUNNE TURNS DOWN RAIL BROTHERHOODS

IS COLD TO THEIR REQUESTS TO ENFORCE POWER HEADLIGHT AND SAFETY APPLI-ANCE LAWS.

MEN'S WARNING UNHEEDED

Representatives of Brotherhoods Rely on Governor Dunne's Pledge to Uphold Civil Service Laws, but Run Into "Billy" O'Connell's Influence, Governor Dunne Fails Them.

Reports indicate that a large majority of the members of the four great railroad Brotherhoods in Illinois are to support Col. Frank O. Lowden, Republican nominee for governor. All signs are said to point to general dissatisfaction in the rank and file of the Brotherhoods with Governor Dunne's shifty policy respecting enforcement of the safety appliance and power headlight laws in Illinois. These two enactments attracted the personal interest of virtually every railroad employee in Illinois and in the pinch, they claim, Governor Dunne failed them.

After a hard fight the Brotherhoods obtained the passage of a power headlight law. It was submitted to Attorney General Lucey, who announced he knew of no reason why the law should not be enforced. The Brotherhoods—eager to have as much protection from accident as possible—rejoiced in the promise of a better illuminated track, but, to their amazement, ran into official inactivity at Springfield. Not a move was made by Governor Dunne to enforce the law, although 27 sister states are doing so vigorously.

Dunne Deceives Brotherhoods.

Regarding the safety appliance fiasco, the Brotherhoods are still more dissatisfied with Governor Dunne. In 1913 they obtained the enactment of an amendment to the law creating two additional inspectors and enlarging their duties. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railroad Conductors, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and the then existing Switchmen's Union of North America combined in a letter to Governor Dunne, emphasizing statements their representatives had made to him verbally, to this effect:

"During your campaign you advocated and pledged yourself to uphold the civil service laws and, manifesting much confidence in your pledge, a number of men from our various brotherhoods entered the competitive examination in December, 1912, for these positions. Had it not been for the confidence the representatives of the Brotherhoods placed in your pledge we would have presented an amendment providing that the appointment of inspectors be made by the officers of the Brotherhood who represented the men that the inspection is intended to protect.

"With the railroad men, it will not redound or operate to the political advantage of any party to use these places for political purposes."

Warning Is Not Heeded.

This was a gentle but vigorous hint to Governor Dunne to appoint experienced railroad men to the inspectors' offices—men who would know what to inspect and how to report on defects in appliances. Did the governor take the hint? Not he. He refused to draw men from the eligible civil service list despite the fact that the first five were Democrats; he made political appointments because, as he told various Brotherhood leaders, "Billy" O'Connell, Dunne's pristine political manager, had control of the two vacant places. The Brotherhoods got no satisfaction from Dunne and were forced to go into the courts at Springfield and obtain an order compelling Dunne to obey the civil service law and name qualified experts.

The governor complied after waiting as long as he dared. All in all, the Illinois Brotherhood members saw nearly two years pass before Governor Dunne did the right thing. Compare this procrastination and deception with Frank O. Lowden's record in congress on labor measures.

Lowden's Good Labor Record.

Colonel Lowden voted yea on motion to suspend rules and pass the employers' liability bill in Congress, April 6, 1908; voted yea on motion to pass the bill limiting hours of service of railroad employees, February 18, 1907; voted yea on motion to suspend rules and pass this bill, May 21, 1908; voted yea on motion to suspend employment of child labor in District of Columbia, May 9, 1908; voted nay on amendment to bill increasing salaries of members of congress, December 14, 1906.

He voted yea, July 12, 1909, on joint resolution to amend the Constitution to impose tax on incomes; voted yea, June 9, 1910, on bill to establish postal savings banks; voted against reciprocity with Canada and in favor of publicity of campaign contributions.

A HIGH PRICED GOVERNOR.
Governor Dunne promised economy. Illinois is getting it. The present Democratic administration is costing $1,000 an hour more than any previous administration in the history of the state. How do you like the brand?

Voters who think they are not opposing the Tax Amendment if they refrain from marking their ballots against it are greatly in error. A failure to vote counts as much against the amendment as if the voter marked his ballot "No."

RUSS VICTORS IN VOLHYNIA

After Desperate Battle Teuton Trenches Are Seized Along Lutsk Front—Berlin Reports Foe Repulsed in Galicia—Serbs Checked. Quiet Prevails in Dobrudja Sector.

Bucharest, Nov. 1.—Another severe repulse of the Austro-German army of General von Falkenhayn is reported by the war office. In the Bratocsa region the Roumanians surprised the Teutons, capturing Mount Rosca, while in the Jul valley they continued to pursue the defeated Teuton forces.

The war office statement says: "At Tulghes and Bicz the situation is unchanged. In Bratocsa small detachments surprised the enemy at Mount Rosca, repulsing him with heavy losses and finding two officers and seventy men in the advance trench. We occupied Mount Rosca, taking many prisoners and capturing a machine gun and a searchlight.

"At Predeles there was a bombardment. In the Prabhova valley in the region of Dragoshavele we repulsed all the enemy attacks. East of the Alt the action is continuing.

"At Orsova there was a bombardment.

"On the southern (Dobrudja) front the situation is unchanged."

Russians Win in Volhynia.

Petrograd, Nov. 1.—A heavy attack made by Russian forces in Volhynia resulted in the capture of Austro-German first-line trenches, the war office announces. Counter attacks were repulsed by the Russians.

The Russians attack was made on the front west of Lutsk, in the region of Pustyniy and Oshchest.

Reports 10,000 Roumanians Taken.

Berlin, Nov. 1.—General von Falkenhayn's forces have captured 151 Roumanian officers and 3,920 men since Oct. 10, the war office announces. Booty includes thirty-seven cannons, forty-seven machine guns, one flag and much other war material.

Quiet prevails on the Transylvanian eastern front. In the southern frontier mountains fighting goes on in spite of heavy fog and snowstorms. North of Campulung, near Boerzeny, and north of Orsova, the Roumanians attempted in vain to take back heights captured from them.

The situation in Dobrudja is unchanged.

Russian troops attacked the German lines near Krashen, in the Shara district, but met with a sanguinary repulse, says the official statement.

Repulse for Russians.

Engagements in the Berestek region on the Lemberg front in Galicia and along the Upper Styrl resulted favorably to the Germans. On the east bank of the Narayuvka, southeast of Lemberg, Turkish troops took several Russian positions.

Important heights further south were taken by German contingents, who repulsed Russian counter attacks and captured four officers, 170 men and nine machine guns. Russian attempts to advance southwest of Stanislav were futile.

Serbian troops which recently have been advancing on the western end of the Macedonian front have been checked and thrown back with heavy losses, the war office announces.

Allies Gain in Roumania.

Paris, Nov. 1.—On the Macedonian front, west of Lake Presba, both the French and Serbians made further progress, the war office announces. The French took possession of Singeri Monastery.

U. S. REASSURED BY BERNSTORFF

Kaiser Will Keep His Word on U-Boats Says Envoy.

TENSION IS MUCH RELIEVED

Secretary Lansing Takes Personal Charge of Gathering Facts About Marina and Rowanmore Incidents. Reports Show Most of Men on Former Are Accounted for.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Secretary of State Lansing announces that he has asked the American charge d'affaires at Berlin to make inquiries of the German government as to the circumstances of the sinking of the Marina and Rowanmore. The state department declined to make public the reports received from Consul Frost at Queenstown. All information on the subject is being transmitted immediately to President Wilson at Shadow Lawn.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Secretary of State Lansing declares that no evidence from witnesses of the submarine attacks on the British steamers Marina and Rowanmore has been received. He indicated that this government will await affidavits, being gathered by American consular and diplomatic agents in England, before making any announcement.

There was no indication of alarm at the state department over either case. The fact that no American lives were lost in the case of the Rowanmore, and that the number of missing in the instance of the Marina had been greatly reduced, tend to lessen considerably the tension held here.

Bernstorff Reassures U. S. Officials felt more reassured after learning of a statement authorized by Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, who said:

"There is not the slightest intention on the part of the German government of changing its submarine policy, and there has been absolutely no change in that policy. Germany intends to keep its pledges to the United States, and there must be some explanation of the attack on the Marina. Probably the ship did not stop when called upon, and was trying to run away."

It is generally accepted here that the Rowanmore was attempting to escape when fired upon and the statements of the persons on board that the submarine continued to fire after the vessel stopped are thought to be due to the excitement of the sailors.

They might easily imagine after being under fire for an hour, that they were still being fired upon, a naval official said.

Lansing Awaits Proof.

Mr. Lansing says he is waiting for "proof" in the case of the Marina and adds that he will not discuss the matter until he has received the sworn testimony of survivors. The crucial point appears to be whether the Marina was warned and if so, whether the ship tried to escape.

If the affidavits being received in England by direction of Mr. Lansing, who has personally taken charge of the investigation, indicate that Germany's pledge to the United States was violated, an inquiry will be directed to the Berlin government.

It was asserted by a state department authority that fairness and justice demanded that no action be taken until Germany had been given an opportunity to furnish evidence gathered by her from her submarine commander. It may be a month or more before the commander of submarine which destroyed the Marina returns to his home base, as these vessels go out equipped in some instances for three months service in enemy waters.

Six Lost on the Marina.

London, Nov. 1.—Six American hostlers were lost and fifty-one were saved when the British steamer Marina was sunk off the Irish coast by a submarine. This, according to the Press association, is the latest information received by United States Consul Frost, of Queenstown. The dispatches goes on to give the surnames of the victims, saying that two were named Thomas, two Brown, one Robertson and one Middleton. Two of the Americans rescued were injured, according to the same authority. Their names are given as Miller and Davis.

BRUNDAGE HARMONY G. O. P. CANDIDATE

thoroughly qualified for the high office to which he aspires. I believe he will bring to that office the best efforts of his ripened powers. And it needs them. Democratic rule in state and nation has proven a monumental failure. Democrats have always been political opportunists and they have never shown it more clearly than in this year of grace. Gov. Dunne wandered over the face of the earth four years ago declaiming against republican extravagance and wickedness in high places. This year he is hard put to explain the two-thirds increase in appropriations during his administration and files a plea of confession and avoidance to which the demurrer will be sustained on November 7. Part of this increase was caused by $100,000 additional appropriations for the attorney general's office during the last session of the legislature, against which I spoke and voted.

"We need to elect Brundage, Lowden and the entire state ticket because the democratic party is a monstrous mistake in state as well as nation. The entire state ticket should be elected so that a harmonious state policy may be developed."

"We have all the republican primary candidates for attorney general present at this meeting, and can join with the psalmist in saying: 'Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity'." Mr. Provine began: "It is also an omen of republican success one week from today."

"A number of republicans sought the nomination for the office of attorney general. Each candidate was free to go when and where he pleased in the interest of his candidacy. As one of the contestants I traveled the state from Galena to Cairo, made the race as best I could, carried a number of counties and received a substantial vote throughout the state; but not enough however to secure the nomination."

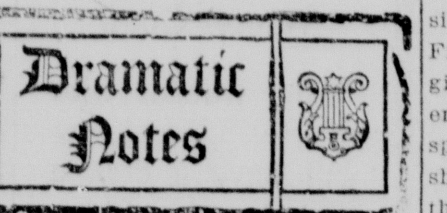

"The people expressed their choice and nominated a man eminently qualified to fill the important office. I am for the nominee and my friends and loyal supporters throughout the state can show their continued friendship for me in no better way than by working and voting for Edward J. Brundage for attorney general and the entire republican ticket."

Mr. Munro, in concluding the meeting, said:

"I speak as one who sought this high office. I recognized not only the high honor which it conferred, but its importance in the onward movement to which so many of us are forever pledged."

"I am for Edward J. Brundage because he proposes to take this office out of politics—to select his assistants according to their legal ability, and not their political strength or party service. The same record for efficiency and integrity which marked his career as president of the county board, the same methods which resulted in no scandal in connection with the handling of millions of dollars of the people's money will be used by Mr. Brundage, if elected attorney general."

"I believe Mr. Brundage to be an ambitious man. I sincerely hope so. If he is elected to this office and gives the people the same high administration that has so conspicuously marked his public service, he will undoubtedly be rewarded with further honors."

Hyams and McIntyre, late stars of "The Girl of My Dreams" and headliners in vaudeville over the Orpheum circuit, are coming to the Dixon opera house Tuesday evening, Nov. 7, in Perry J. In the cast are such well known performers as Eda von Luke, late featured in The Prince of Pilsen and The Girl of My Dreams; Maude Beatty, Doris Vernon, Dorothy Reich, Roy Purviance, Maurice Darcy and George Hall, and a large chorus of Broadway's prettiest singing and dancing girls. Beside present stars such as would make any musical show attractive, the production offers new and catchy music and scenic embellishment that is the best product of New York studios.

Judge by the Aroma—Your Nose Knows

Ten different men—or ten different advertisements—will tell you that ten different tobaccos are the best on earth.

Your nose will tell you one tobacco is the best. And your nose knows.

Make this simple test. Rub some TUXEDO briskly between your palms until the heat and friction bring out the full aroma—then hold it up to your nose. Test every other tobacco you can get hold of in the same way. Give them all a fair, square test.

Your nose will say, "Oh, what a difference." Your nose will tell you that TUXEDO is packed full of that delightful fragrance that must mean supreme flavor and mildness. Your nose will tell you that the other tobaccos don't meet the test—that they fall down hard.

Your pipe will back up what your nose says. TUXEDO is as good as its aroma. That's saying a whole lot—but the proof is waiting for you.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the Princess will present Marguerite Courtot in a five reel Mutual Masterpiece entitled "Feather-top," a 5-act drama based partially on the Nathaniel Hawthorne classic of that title.

Marguerite Courtot has never appeared so charming nor has she reached the heights of emotional expression as she does in "Feather-top." First appearing as a simple country girl in love with her father's gardener, she plays with naivete and the spirit of carefree youth. Later when she reaches the city and succumbs to the lure of the social game her role calls for a character transformation, and her interpretation of this difficult part stamps her as one of the most versatile artists in picture work. The supporting cast was selected especially for this production and includes many well known screen actors. The settings are sumptuous, the photography perfect and the story interesting and gripping.

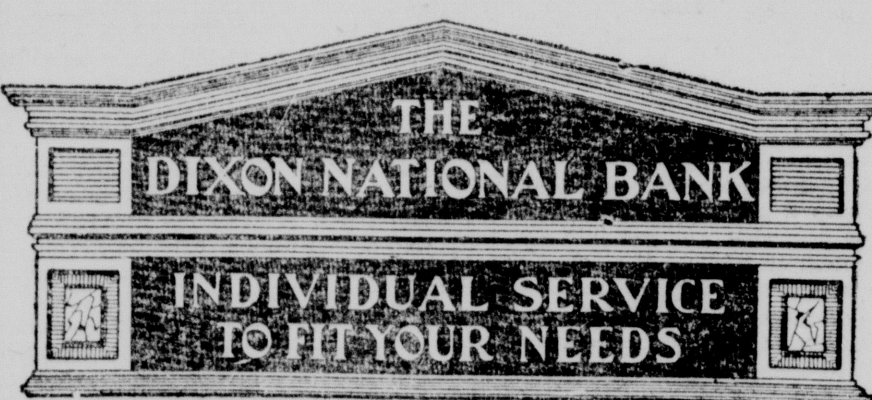

Tomorrow evening the first chapter of the thrilling and patriotic serial entitled "Liberty" will be shown.

It is a romantic drama in 20 chapters, noble in its patriotism, tense in emotional situations and unique in its marvelous portrayals of life along the Mexican border.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a glass of Salts to flush Kidneys if Bladder bothers you—Drink lots of water.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

DENEEN IN SPEECHES

WARMLY PRAISES LOWDEN

Former Governor Says Lowden Is Man of High Ability—Should Have United Republican Support.

Charles S. Deneen, for eight years governor of Illinois, one of the leading Republicans of Illinois and the middle West, in recent speeches in support of Frank O. Lowden and the Republican state ticket, has had this to say of Colonel Lowden, as man and candidate:

"I come now to speak of the Republican nominee for governor, Col. Frank O. Lowden of Oregon. As is well known, in the primaries I supported Senator Morton D. Hull for governor. Senator Hull represented the senatorial district adjoining the one in which I reside. He had been a member of the general assembly for six years during my administration, and had been very active in all the progressive legislation which had been enacted during that time. I had relied greatly upon his knowledge, ability and experience and his high character. I felt under the greatest obligation to him for the assistance he had rendered me in the hard struggles we had met during my administration. I felt that he was admirably qualified by ability, character and experience to make a governor whose services could be of great value to our state.

"Colonel Lowden's campaign was conducted for more than two years. His candidacy was brought to the attention of every voter, and it must be a matter of pride to him and his friends to know that he received a larger vote than his two distinguished opponents, Senator Morton D. Hull and Col. Frank L. Smith of Dwight.

Lowden Wins Fairly.

"The claims of the candidates were fairly submitted to the people of the state. All of them had had experience in public life and the people were able to judge of their character and ability. The voters have indicated their preference. Colonel Lowden was preferred and I am here to support his candidacy. I do so cheerfully. When the colonel and I were opponents twelve years ago and the fortunes of the contest favored me, Colonel Lowden supported me cordially. I owe my support to him as a matter of gratitude for what he did for me when I was a candidate. I owe it to him because he is the Republican nominee and I am a Republican.

"The Republican party can be victorious and effective only by electing its candidates. Colonel Lowden is our candidate and I am in this campaign urging his election. I have known him for a long time. He and I were students at the same time at the Old Union College of Law in Chicago when we were young men. I formed his acquaintance then and regarded him as a rising young man who was destined to occupy a conspicuous place in the community as he has.

"Colonel Lowden has attained prominence in many lines, in law, in large business affairs and in connection with his extensive farming operations. He has, likewise, obtained a conspicuous position in the politics of the state and nation.

Entitled to Support.

"Had Senator Hull been nominated, we would certainly have expected Colonel Lowden to have exerted his influence in his support. Had Col. Frank L. Smith of Dwight been nominated, we would have expected Colonel Lowden and Senator Hull to support him. Colonel Lowden is the nominee, and he is entitled to the loyal, earnest and enthusiastic support of the friends of Senator Hull and Colonel Smith and will receive their support. And he will be elected.

"Colonel Lowden has outlined his program. It deals with the state finances, the co-ordination of the state departments, the revision of our revenue law, the more just and equal distribution of the burdens of taxation and with the question of a constitutional convention. The work which he has outlined will occupy all his energies to achieve during one administration."

SHIFT TITLE OF JOBS TO KEEP ON PAY ROLL

Twenty-Two Instances Recently of Patent Evasions of the State Civil Service Statute.

One of the methods employed by the present Democratic state administration to evade the Civil Service law has been by changing titles of positions. In some departments this has reached a point where employees must be sitting up nights to figure out some new title. After the title for the job has been obtained—for which, of course, there is no eligible list—the commission is asked for permission to make temporary appointment. Permission being given, the appointment is made and the pay roll has the equivalent of one more "temporary." Under the Dunne regime the pay rolls of the various departments and institutions are clogged with these so-called "temporaries." It has been difficult, of course, at times to think of a new name for some of the jobs, but "investigator," "clerk," "inspector," or "special agent," or merely "agent," have been favorite titles. A recent examination of the Civil Service records showed 22 instances where employees, male and female, have been given new jobs, i. e., titles, that they might get by Civil Service restrictions and keep on the pay roll.

BACKING UP PROOF

THE KIND THAT DIXON PEOPLE CANNOT DENY

Many an earnest Dixon man or woman has publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.

Week after week, month after month, you've read their statements.

Would these Dixon people recommend any medicine if it were not good?

Would they confirm and repeat their statements after years had passed?

Local proof is good evidence. Testimony confirmed years after is better evidence.

The following Dixon man's statement leaves no room for doubt.

It must convince every kindred sufferer who reads it.

If your back aches—if your kidneys are weak—profit by Mr. Walford's experience:

W. Walford, blacksmith, Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "The kidney secretions were irregular in passage. My back ached too. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and the pains left my back and my kidneys became regular in action." (Statement given May 21, 1912.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE

On January 21, 1915, Mr. Walford said: "I have had no kidney trouble at all in the past few years and I give the credit of my cure to Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Walford has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

JUSTIFIED BY REVENUE NEEDS

Tax Amendment Will Make Revenue Increase Possible—Has Done So in Other States.

Will a system of classifying personal property for taxation raise large revenues from intangible personality now largely escaping assessment?

Absolutely, says the Chicago Herald. The experience of every state adopting the principle of classification to any extent proves it.

For instance?

In Baltimore abandoning the general property tax and adopting classification resulted in increasing the assessment on the stocks, bonds and certificates of foreign corporations from $6,000,000 in 1896 to $208,431,712 in 1915; the public revenue from $130,650 to $537,942.

Another example?

The Minnesota tax commission in 1914 reported an increase in assessment of intangible personality from $14,000,000 in 1910 to $196,500,000 in 1914—about 1,300 per cent in four years—resulting from abandoning the general property tax and acting on the principle of classification.

Another?

Official reports from New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and divers other states where personality is treated for tax purposes differently from realty demonstrate the revenue value of the change. In Pennsylvania during the last 25 years the intangible personality assessment has actually increased faster than the realty assessment.

The pending tax amendment might then be justified sufficiently on revenue grounds alone?

It unquestionably might.

FUEL SHORTAGE PERILS NATION

BLAST FURNACES MAY CLOSE

Unable to Get Supply, Washington Is Informed—Mines Limit Production to Capacity of Carriers and Have No Reserve.Washington, Nov. 1.—The fuel shortage situation begins to assume the proportions of a real menace. Reports reaching Washington from many centers of inability to obtain normal coal supplies.With the greatest industrial activity the country has ever known keeping factories and blast furnaces on twenty-four hour service and the railroads facing the greatest traffic in their history, an unheard-of demand for coal has arisen, according to authorities here.Coupled with the immense demand for coal, the railroads, with all available facilities working at maximum, are facing, according to reports by the interstate commerce commission, the worst car shortage they have ever experienced.The unprecedented activity on the railroads has meant the greatest coal consumption by the railroads themselves ever experienced, railroad men declare.The domestic consumption, coal men say, will be greater than ever before if the coal can be obtained.As an aggravation of the situation the coal mines have a tendency, according to coal experts of the United States geological survey, to limit their production to the capacity of the carriers to haul the coal from their mines. Practically no coal, it was asserted, is stored at mines to await transportation.

Demand Report on Coal Cars.

Columbus, O., Nov. 1.—The state public utilities commission sent telegrams to officials of all railroads operating in Ohio ordering them to file with the commission not later than Thursday a statement showing the number of coal cars loaded and in transit or at stations along their lines on Oct. 30 and showing the number of days' detention because of demurrage.This action was taken by the commission as a part of its investigation of the alleged coal car shortage situation in Ohio with relation to the high cost of coal. The commission also announced that it has had investigators over the state inquiring into the subject for the last ten days.

City in Coal Business.

Because of the high price of coal asked by dealers, the City of Conneaut, Ohio, has gone into the retail coal business. It is selling fuel on hand for its municipal plant to household patrons for $4.50 per ton.At Youngstown the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company has announced that it will furnish coal to its employees in need of fuel as long as necessary. Coal is being delivered by the corporation at $4 a ton.At Cleveland a conference was held under the auspices of the chamber of commerce to devise ways and means to end the alarming coal situation.
The Cleveland city council adopted a resolution calling upon County Prosecutor Locher to investigate the shortage of coal and prohibitive prices in Cleveland and to take steps to end these conditions.
